

YOUTH ENVIRONMENTAL ACTION SUMMIT

PARENTS & GUARDIANS,

Exciting news! Our class is developing an "action project" that we will be submitting to the Youth Environmental Action Summit (YEAS) where we will have a chance to win funding to implement our ideas! YEAS is a free event on Friday, April 5th at the Ward Museum in Salisbury, MD, hosted in partnership with NOAA, where students will present their ideas and learn about ways that they can make positive change in our community. April 5th is a professional day (no school) - so this is NOT a field trip - however our class has been invited to represent at the summit. _____ is a YEAS Mentor and will be there to support students from our class. If your child is interested/able to attend, kindly read the details below, sign and return the bottom slip to me by _____. We hope to have 5-10 students from our class represent at the event. Breakfast and lunch is provided at no cost. You can learn more about the Youth Environmental Action Summit at: www.yeasummit.org.

Date: Friday, April 5, 2019

Transportation: Must provide your own ride to and from the Ward Museum.

Drop-off time: Between 8-8:45 AM
